

Portia is the current chair of Drug Free Sport NZ (DFSNZ) Athletes' Commission and represents DFSNZ on the ALN board. Portia is an accomplished and current track and field athlete representing New Zealand on the global stage. While she initially competed as a heptathlete, Portia made the transition to the 400m hurdles in 2019 to pursue her educational goals alongside her sport.

In addition to her athletic pursuits, Portia enjoys serving as the chair of the DFSNZ Athletes' Commission. Through this role, she passionately advocates for clean and drug-free sport, ensuring fair competition for all athletes. Portia brings a diverse background in law and finance having worked for prominent organizations like Westpac, the Serious Fraud Office, and currently ASB.

Portia's multifaceted experiences provide her with a unique perspective that she aims to effectively contribute to various aspects of the sports industry, further enhancing the work of the ALN.
